[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE RECORD-UNION.]

San Francisco, April 25th.—This was the first day of the spring meeting of the Pacific Blood Horse Association at the Bay District

[illegible]

The Chinese Convention assembled this evening at the Vereen Eintracht Hall at 8 o'clock. After some modification, the report of the Committee on Credentials was adopted. The report excluded all delegates connected with political and non-laboring organizations. Before adopting the report, a long discussion was indulged in, which became very warm. Dennis Kearney and a number of other persons claiming to be delegates, attempted to obtain seats in the Convention. However, after a sharp skirmish, they were excluded, and the scene of threatened disorder and disturbance was averted.

disturbance promptly repressed. The Committee on Permanent Organization submitted report, which was adopted. The report presented the following permanent officers of the Convention: President, Geo. H.

Johnson; Vice-Presidente, William Vint-Ambrose Englis, Henry Richter, Frank
Rooney, John Robinson and Wm. Hearne; Secretaries, J. W. Richards, W. H. Eastman
and M. L. Farland; Treasurer, J. W. Joy.
A committee was appointed, consisting of one member from each organization represented, to prepare and present to the Convention a plan for the adjustment of the vexed problem of labor and the Clinch question. A Committee on Finance was also appointed. A Committee on Resolutions was appointed to report at a subsequent meeting of the Con-

tion. A number of resolutions were presented to the Convention on the question of Chinese immigration, its effects on white labor, etc. No action was taken on any resolution, but all were referred to the Committee on Resolutions. The Convention then adjourned until to-morrow evening at 8 o'clock.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 25th.—The members of the Italian Philodramatic Society and of the Italian Bessaglierie Mutual Benevolent Society have passed resolutions thanking Representative Page for his efforts in Congress to have the anniversary of the discovery

The search of the British iron steamship Metapedia by the Custom-house officers resulted in the seizure of 400 opium pipe heads and 80 pipe stems.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 25th.—Max Wendt has brought suit in the Superior Court to recover $10,000 damages from the National Flour Mills. The complaint alleges that plaintiff was working in the mill, at the corner of Battery and Pacific streets, when a large door fell upon him, causing injuries from which he will never recover.

The suit brought by Max P. Schetzel, a Sunday law man, against Justice Ryan and Kellogg Bros., to recover $10,000 damages for alleged malicious prosecution, will come up to-morrow morning before Judge Lawlor for trial.

The Money Market.

State is being squeezed through silver. The exchange rate is also dull and weak. Finance ministers with little inquiry outside of the department of the Government. Money lenders are not looking forward to a quiet time for the next two months. The movement of the wool clip is calling for some coin. The range of interest on all loans is 4@6 per cent., and the exchange rates for commercial loans are 7 to 10 per cent. Mortgage paper is taken by the savings banks at 7@9 per cent., and the borrower is relieved of all obligations for taxes to the extent of the lien on his property. Drafts

A Stone-Thrower in Trouble.
ROCKLEIGH, April 25th.—As the east-bound migrant train was leaving Rossville to-day a drunken man from You Bet, who was making himself a general nuisance, tried to get upon the train, but being prevented by one of the conductors, threw a stone at the atter, which, missing him, crashed through the

both the rear and front windows of the cu-
a look-out on the caboose, and passed o-
to the other side of the train. A man occu-occupying a seat in the lookout narrowly escaped injury. The assailant was immediately arrested by Constable Scott, upon the order of superintendent Pratt, and brought to this place for safe keeping until Thursday, when he will have a hearing before Justice Pullen.

Horse Stolen.
ROCKLIN, April 25th.—A fine horse was taken from the Andy Grant races, near Pine Grove, two miles east of here, last night, and has not since been heard from. It was taken from within a board fence inclosure, and the boards were carefully replaced to prevent any suspicion.

GILROY, April 25th.—This morning John Gilroy, 41 years of age, was found in bed.

was found dead in his bed. He was at the Hillroy Hot Springs for his health. His death is supposed to have been caused by some disease of the heart.

Election in Los Angeles County.
ANAHEIM, April 25th.—At the municipal election held here yesterday the following officers were elected: Trustees, B. Dreyfus, E. A. Saxton, I. Boeger, J. Northam, J. P. Meyn; Clerk, Richard Melrose; Assessor, C. I. Zevn; Treasurer, G. B. Shaffer; Marshal, F. W. Tyler; Justice, A. Bailey. The contest was very sharp, but had no pronounced leaning, personal and local matters being the point at issue. The majorities on the winning ticket were large, and the vote polled was the largest for years.

OREGON.

Items from Portland.

PORTLAND, April 25th.—A. Bieher, Postmaster at Lakeview, who was charged with robbing the mails, was examined to-day by United States Commissioner LAMSON and found exonerated.

Last night Charles Hecker, foreman of the Oregon Railway and Navigation Company, and Pat. Cull, while taking a ride on a sleighsided handcar, attempted to run over Eagle creek bridge, near the lower cascades. The car jumped the track and precipitated the men to the bottom, a distance of about forty feet. Hecker died in twenty minutes. Cull is alive, but will probably die.
